

Market-consistent valuations and Solvency II: implications of the recent financial crisis

Date: 16 September 2010

Location: Staple Inn Hall, London

Time: 17.00 –18.30

Why attend?

In this seminar Kamran Foroughi will spend around 40 minutes presenting key conclusions from the paper "Market-consistent valuations and Solvency II: implications of the recent financial crisis" before opening up for questions.

This paper was originally presented to ICA 2010 and can be found via the following web link: http://www.ica2010.com/docs/90\_final\_paper\_Foroughi.pdf

A revised version reflecting latest Solvency II QIS 5 and IASB Insurance Contract Exposure Draft developments will be made available two weeks before the seminar.

Who should attend?

This seminar will be of particular interest to individuals (whether actuaries or not) who work within insurance company financial management and wish to better understand the implications of latest financial reporting and Solvency II developments.
