CMI Mortality Projections Committee
Terms of reference and reporting requirements

These terms of reference were approved by the CMI Executive Committee on 22 June 2026.

Purpose

The role of the CMI Mortality Projections Committee is to oversee the running of the CMI mortality projections investigation to ensure the needs of CMI Subscribers and the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries are met in a timely manner.

Key Responsibilities

1. Strategy

a. Makes recommendations to the Executive Committee regarding any possible changes to the strategic direction of the Mortality Projections Committee, to ensure that it remains appropriate to the needs of CMI Subscribers and the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries in this field.

b. Seeks to monitor relevant research in the field of mortality projections.

2. Planning and reporting

a. Makes recommendations to the Executive Committee regarding the objectives of the Mortality Projections Committee for each financial year.

b. If the Committee wishes to undertake significant new initiatives not contained within its agreed objectives for that year, these will be referred to the Executive Committee for approval, with a statement of the benefits and an estimate of the costs associated with different options.

3. Governance

a. Acts within these Terms of Reference under delegated authority from the Executive Committee.

4. Oversight

a. Ensures that the mortality projections investigation has access to appropriate data.

b. Monitors progress towards achievement of the Committee's objectives.

c. Monitors risks that may threaten the achievement of the Committee's objectives and how these are managed.

5. Other responsibilities

a. Liaises with CMI's Subscribers and the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries to ensure CMI is meeting their needs.

b. Publishes research in a prompt, accurate, useful and well-presented manner.

c. Produces, from time to time, tools for modelling future changes in mortality rates.

d. Ensures that the work of the CMI in the field of mortality projections is well publicised.

e. Ensures that appropriate quality standards are applied in all aspects of the work of the CMI Mortality Projections Committee.

Membership

Chair: Steve Bale

Support: Jon Palin

The Mortality Projections Committee shall normally be made up of at least four members appointed by the Executive Committee. If there are fewer than four members, the Committee will continue to operate but the Executive Committee may require that any proposed outputs should be subject to external peer review, prior to release.

Committee members will hold office for three years from the date of joining the Committee or until the resignation of the member. After each three years, the Chair and the member may agree to extend their term for a further three years; typically, subject to a maximum of one renewal.

Vacancies for new members will ordinarily be advertised widely to ensure an appropriate balance of skills, experience and diversity.

Specific Procedural Rules

1. Confidentiality – matters discussed in meetings are not normally considered confidential unless they are specified otherwise however Committee members should respect the requirement for controlled release of sensitive information.
2. Quorum of meetings:
   - A meeting is quorate if at least one third of the membership is present (rounded up to the nearest whole number).
   - A non-quorate meeting may meet or continue to meet but any material decisions made should be approved by the full Committee before the minutes are formally approved.
3. Voting rights:
   - For significant issues each member should be able to vote or record views (including by correspondence or telephone). Each member's vote carries equal standing.
   - Non-Committee members who may be in attendance have no voting rights.
   - If the Mortality Projections Committee is divided on an issue it should be referred to the Executive Committee.
4. The Committee will receive regular updates on progress towards objectives from the Secretariat.
5. Volunteers engaged in CMI work should comply with the "Governance guidance for members of CMI Committees and Working Parties".
