ERCA Working Party

The Actuarial Profession

making financial sense of the future

Change of Focus

Broadening

- not just ICA

- Capital and Risk modelling more generally

Narrowing

- support

- source of useful material

- we do not intend to offer any kind of 'official' stance

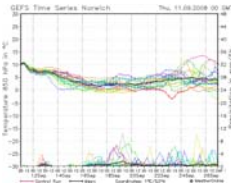

Precise scope yet to be fully formed by the Working Party

The Actuarial Profession

If there is one message you take away from this presentation, please let it be this...

The Working Party is concerned with helping, aiding and supporting actuaries performing economic risk and capital assessments.
