

LORD MAYOR'S SHOW, HOT BUFFET LUNCH AND FIREWORKS
SATURDAY, 10TH NOVEMBER 2012

The Worshipful Company of Actuaries is once again inviting members of the profession, and their friends and families, to view the Lord Mayor's Show on Saturday, 10 November and/or view the fireworks on the Thames early that evening.

Although the procession can be viewed from the streets there will be a limited number of places available in the Barnett Waddingham offices at 138 Cheapside, which overlook the procession route. You should arrive by 10.30 and tea/coffee will be provided.

We have booked the Doggett's Bar solely for our use at Doggett's Coat and Badge next to Blackfriars Bridge on the South Bank so that you can enjoy a wonderful view of the fireworks. We will meet there at 2.30 pm for a two course hot buffet lunch at 3.00 pm, price £20 per head with drinks for own account. The fireworks at 5.00 pm will be launched by the new Lord Mayor from a barge moored on the river between Blackfriars and Waterloo Bridges. Capacity is limited to 80 people, so please book early to avoid disappointment.

After the procession and before the lunch, families may like to visit the funfair in Paternoster Square where there are various rides and stalls to suit all ages. Also, there are free guided City Walks starting from St. Paul's tube station.
