Wherever, whenever

- “The Code applies at all times to members’ conduct in their work as actuaries, but will also be taken into consideration where their conduct in other contexts could reasonably be considered to reflect on the profession.” - Actuaries’ Code

- Have you ever thought how that might apply?

Reporting Criminal Convictions

- “Members will act honestly and with the highest standards of integrity” - Principle 1 of the Code: Integrity
- Duty to disclose criminal convictions promptly - Rule 1.19 of the IFoA Disciplinary Scheme
- Failure to self-disclose could be considered a disciplinary offence with disciplinary action being taken against a Member.

Conduct outside of work

- But what about activities that don't involve a criminal conviction...

---

4 November 2015

10

Scenario 1

- Your letter to a national newspaper, starting “I am an actuary”, is published. In it you make vitriolic comments about government policy and personal comments about the Prime Minister and chancellor.

---

4 November 2015

11

Scenario 2

- You got rather carried away at the Rugby World cup and did a streak on the pitch. The press reported as “Actuary reveals his vital statistics”.

---

12

Conduct in the office

What about the way you act in the office?

Consider...

Scenario 3

You are working on a review of your company's product lines. It becomes obvious that a particular line is not profitable and unlikely to become so in the near future. The decision will almost certainly be to stop marketing it and make those in the team redundant.

---

Scenario 4

Your friend, the Marketing actuary for this line, recently let you know that since she has now been with the firm for five years, she feels more secure and is going to buy a new house and car.

What would you do?

Forever Whenever Whoever

The expectation is you will do the right thing .....
....always

Disciplinary Scheme

- Applies where there is alleged misconduct
- Sets out the processes and procedures that will apply in relation to allegations about members
- Sets out the sanctions available if there is a finding of misconduct
- BUT what is 'misconduct'?...

4 November 2015

Misconduct

- “misconduct means any conduct by a Member, whether committed in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, in the course of carrying out professional duties or otherwise, constituting failure by that Member to comply with standards of behaviours, integrity, competence or professional judgement which other Members or the public might reasonably expect of a Member having regard to the Bye-laws of the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries and/or to any code, standards, advice, guidance, memorandum or statement on professional conduct, practice or duties which may be given and published by the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries and/or, for so long as there is a relevant Memorandum of Understanding in force, by the FRC (including by the Board for Actuarial Standards in terms thereof, and to all other relevant circumstances.

IFoA Disciplinary scheme – definition of 'misconduct'

What should I do?

- As a Respondent:
  - Co-operate with investigation
  - Provide documentation
  - Be honest
  - Show insight
  - Consider legal advice
- As a person making a complaint:
  - Consult with IFoA Disciplinary Team
  - Consider Whistleblowing guidance
  - Keep records
  - Provide clear evidence
  - Consider a chronology
  - Be clear about the remit of the IFoA
