

Join Our Global Debate

The IFoA's "Professionalism Lecture Series" is eligible for Professional Skills CPD. Events have already taken place in Edinburgh, Gibraltar, Hong Kong, London, Malaysia, Newport (Wales) and Singapore.

"Based in South Africa, I am proud to be the first internationally based President of the IFoA. As such, global relevance and debate is very important to me. The IFoA's Professionalism Lecture Series 2017/18 comprises a series of events around the world taking place over the course of 2017 and indeed into 2018 and I encourage you to get involved and join the debate."

Future events in 2018:

Further lectures are being planned including:

- Trans national professional regulation (and the challenges this poses in terms of culture and ethics, whistleblowing etc.)
- Professional regulation of climate change and its importance to the financial services sector
- What other professionals can learn from professional regulation case studies from the medical profession.

Professionalism and the Role of the Professional

Speaker: Dr Daniel Susskind

Fellow in Economics at Balliol College, Oxford University, where he teaches and researches. He is the co-author of the best-selling book, The Future of the Professions. Previously he worked in the British Government – as a policy adviser in the Prime Minister's Strategy Unit, as a policy analyst in the Policy Unit in 10 Downing Street, and as a senior policy adviser in the Cabinet Office. He was a Kennedy Scholar at Harvard University.

*“Our programme is designed to promote debate around the importance of professionalism, and the role of professionals, including actuaries
and others, across the financial services industry.*

I encourage you to join the debate and please highlight this to other professionals.”
