Tutors for ASHK/IFoA members

We are seeking to appoint volunteers to help ASHK/IFoA student members in Hong Kong studying towards CA3, CT2, CT3, CT4, CT5, CT6, CT8, SA2 and ST1. The local Actuarial Society of HK (ASHK) is forming actuarial exam study groups and they are recruiting tutors.

“Task” and “Person” Specification:

“Task” Specification

As ASHK’s study groups aim to support young members to maximise study efforts and master actuarial exams successfully, tutors will specifically be tasked with the following. This will include:

- a willingness to help others
- sharing knowledge and exam tactics
- encouraging student members to discuss and learn from one another.

Tenure

The term of study groups is for a maximum of four months from August to November 2016.

Commitment

Tutors will be matched with students who will sit for the Fall 2016 actuarial exams based on their exam needs.

Tutors and students shall agree on the mode and frequency of interaction after the matching.

“Person” Specification

We are looking for someone who:

- is a Fellow or Associate of the IFoA, preferably based in Hong Kong and China region
- has a solid track record of passing actuarial exams over the past three years.

In return, the volunteers will receive:

- recognition by the IFoA and a silver pin for volunteering for the profession
- enhanced coaching, communication and leadership skills
- the opportunity to “give back” to the actuarial profession and society
- the personal satisfaction of helping others.
