NOTES ON THE JOURNAL OF THE INSTITUTE OF ACTUARIES

VOL. 114, PART I, NO. 456 (1987)

M. H. Field. Presidential Address. Risk and Expectation. (pp.1-14).

Presentation of an Institute Finlaison Medal to Professor Alasdair David Wilkie. (pp.15-20).

C. D. Daykin. The Recent Trend of Mortality in Great Britain. (pp.135-142).

Review (p.153).

VOL. 114, PART II, NO. 457 (1987)

D. J. D. McLeish and C. M. Stewart. Objectives and Methods of Funding Defined Benefit Pension Schemes. (pp.155-226).

A. R. Thatcher. Mortality at the Highest Ages. (pp.327-338).

A. Brace. A Linear Approach to Loan and Valuation Problems. (pp.393-402).

Notes on One-Day Seminar (27 November 1986): The Finance Act 1986; Transfer Values; The Disclosure Regulations; Effects upon Existing Pension Schemes of Proposed Changes in the State Earnings-Related Pension Scheme. (pp.403-406).

Articles, papers and publications of actuarial interest. (pp.407-408).

Reviews. (pp.409-410).

Professor S. Haberman. Long-Term Sickness and Invalidity Benefits: Forecasting and Other Actuarial Problems. (pp.467-550).

H. R. Waters and A. D. Wilkie. A Short Note on the Construction of Life Tables and Multiple Decrement Tables. (pp.569-580).

L. A. Roberts. Bias in q and m Rate Estimates. (pp.591-599).

Articles, papers and publications of actuarial interest. (pp.601-602).

Reviews. (pp.603-606).

Living with Risk, the British Medical Association Guide. By Dr Michael Henderson.

Correspondence (pp.607-609).