Finance and Investment Research Sub-committee – Member

The Institute and Faculty of Actuaries (IFoA) is seeking to appoint a proactive volunteer to the Finance and Investment Research Sub-committee and to help drive forward research in this practice area. Your contribution will play a part in helping to shape and contribute to the Finance and Investment community.

“Task” and “Person” Specification:

“Task” Specification

The post-holder will be someone who is aware of the Terms of Reference for this sub-committee and wishes to help drive this forward and in doing so to particularly:

- be responsible for keeping abreast of any IFoA led research and to push forward more member-led Finance and Investment research
- identify potential future research needs in order to inform the Finance and Investment Board
- provide feedback to the Finance and Investment Board through the Chair of the Finance and Investment Research sub-committee as required
- identify, promote and foster research opportunities providing guidance for member-led research working parties
- mentor and support the progress and needs of member-led working parties, taking personal responsibility for at least one working party
- provide contributions to the committee responsible for developing the programme for the Finance and Investment strand of the IFoA's annual residential conference.

Tenure

This is a three year appointment.

Time Commitment

The time commitment is approximately one to one and a half days per month. Attendance would be required at four meetings per year which are held in London at the IFoA offices at Holborn Gate. There is the option to join these meetings by conference call.

“Person” Specification

The member of this sub-committee will ideally be someone who:

- is a member of the IFoA
- feels passionate about research
- is keen to look at new ways to help drive research forward and to encourage and support more member-led Finance and Investment research and feels able to identify potential future research needs
- has a broad understanding of Finance and Investment matters in the wider context of the profession

- has a collegiate approach and a desire to foster a sense of community amongst members of the sub-committee and to deliver a service which benefits members in the UK and internationally
- ideally has participated in an IFoA working party in the past
- will read widely and/or network on behalf of the IFoA to keep abreast of hot topics.

In return, the volunteer will:

- be provided from the Executive with excellent professional management support and assistance and will be able to enjoy the satisfaction of knowing they have helped shape the advancement of actuarial science in this practice area
- if asked to chair a working party and/or a workshop/plenary at a Finance and Investment conference or event, be offered guidance and support as to best practice

Claiming CPD

If you intend to use the time spent on this activity when recording your CPD, remember it must be relevant to your work or role and address a personal development need. You should record an appropriate learning outcome. This is in accordance with the CPD Scheme.
